1. COOKIE POLICY

Vector Renewables España, S.L.U. (hereinafter, “Vector” or “us”) with registered office at Calle Serrano 27, 3º 28001 - Madrid, and with Tax Identification Number B84544428, uses cookies or other files with similar functionality (hereinafter, “Cookies”) in order to ensure the proper functioning of vectorenrenewables.com (hereinafter, the “Website”), to allow the personalisation of certain elements, to obtain statistical data on the use made by Users (hereinafter, the “User”, the “Users” or “you”) and to offer advertising content in accordance with your interests and browsing habits.

With this policy, we provide you with information about the use of Cookies on the Website.

2. WHAT ARE COOKIES?

Cookies are files containing small amounts of information that are downloaded and stored on the User’s device when visiting a website.

Cookies allow information about your browsing to be collected and retrieved and can be used to enable you to navigate between pages efficiently, ensure that the advertisements you see online are most relevant to your interests, remember your preferences and, in general, improve your experience as a User.

The data collected may include unique identifiers (such as your IP address), the type of browser or device, the date and time of access, the length of time spent on the site and the pages visited, among other things.

First-party Cookies

These are managed directly by Vector and used exclusively for our own purposes.

Third-party Cookies

These are sent to your device by a third party that processes the data obtained through Cookies for its own purposes.

3. COOKIES USED ON THE WEBSITE AND THEIR PURPOSE

On our Website, we use both our own and third-party Cookies for the purposes set out below. We will inform you if, in the future, the provider uses other Cookies for the purpose of providing more and better services.

TECHNICAL OR NECESSARY COOKIES

These Cookies enable the User to navigate through the Website and use its various options or services. Their main purpose is to respond to actions taken by you to receive services, such as logging into the Website or remembering the information entered when filling out forms.

If they are deleted or blocked, the Website may not function or may not function correctly.
